Do not hesitate to call us if you have any questions.

1. I/We have read and support the mission, Student Handbook policies, and educational philosophy of Southwest Christian School.

2. I/We agree to maintain for our son or daughter an environment which is compatible with Southwest Christian School's policies, moral conduct and academic expectations.

3. I/We understand that if our child uses or possesses illegal drugs, alcohol, or tobacco products at or away from school that he or she will be held accountable according to the Student Handbook policies.

4. I/We understand that each student's academic and behavioral records are monitored throughout the year. Students who do not maintain acceptable academic or behavioral standards will meet with administration as detailed in the Student Handbook. Follow-up can include parent conferences, recommendation of guidance or academic support, loss of attendance privileges, and recommendation for withdrawal.
