Mrs. Carroll is the Music Coordinator and Choral Director at Southwest Christian School. She teaches and conducts the SCS High School and Middle School choirs, co-teaches the Middle School Praise Ministries class, serves as the music director for the large SCS Music Theatre productions and coordinates the K-12 music program. She has sung in community and professional choirs in the metroplex, participates with her choirs in the Texas Private School Music Educators Association and has been invited as a clinician in the Arlington ISD. Mrs. Carroll holds a Master of Music in Choral Conducting from the University of Texas at Arlington, where she also worked as a Graduate Teaching Assistant to the Choral Department, traveling nationally and performing with the UT Arlington A Cappella Choir at TMEA and National ACDA conferences. She also holds a Bachelor of Arts in Vocal Performance from Oklahoma Christian University in Oklahoma City, OK, where she performed both opera and music theater roles, played in production pit orchestras and toured nationally with the Oklahoma Christian Chorale and Symphonic Band. Mrs. Carroll and her husband served as missionaries for ten years in Dresden, Germany from 2001 - 2011. Her musical knowledge, experiences of living abroad and Star Wars trivia are shared with her students in the choir room. Mrs. Carroll's passion and personal mission is to help students discover how to turn their God-given talents into life-long skills and disciplines for God's glory. She and her husband Randy reside currently with their three children, Olivia (18), Chris (16) and Alex (14) in Arlington, Texas.
